

St Ignatius Chapel Relaxed Public Masses Arrangement

With regard to the Chancery Notice announced on 23/06/2021 concerning the Relaxed Group Gathering Measures, and in compliance with the requirements of the Hong Kong Government and Wah Yan College, Kowloon, public Masses will be arranged as follows effective 27/06/2021 (Sunday) :

Weekday Cantonese/ Mass	at 07:40 (Chinese / English)
Sunday Cantonese Mass	at 09:00 a.m.
English Mass	at 10:30 a.m.
Putonghua Mass	at 11:45 a.m.

According to the relaxed measures, the maximum number of persons allowed to a Mass is extended to 50% of the capacity of the Chapel. Please note that if the number of parishioners is more than allowed, parishioners are encouraged to join the live streaming of Masses offered by the Hong Kong Catholic Cathedral.

Pastoral Guidelines

1. All entries must go thru the main entrance of Wah Yan College, Kowloon.
2. The car park of Wah Yan College is now open to all again. Nevertheless, once the number of parishioners has reached the maximum capacity allowed in a Mass, no more cars will be allowed to enter the car park until the next Mass.
3. Upon entering the Chapel, parishioners are required to scan the “LeaveHomeSafe” venue QR code or to record their names, contact numbers, and the dates and times of their visits on registration forms. The information collected will be kept for 31 days and will solely be used to facilitate the relevant Government departments for virus tracing purposes.
4. Upon entering Wah Yan College, parishioners must put on face masks, have their body temperature taken and their hands cleansed with sanitizer.
5. Parishioners are only allowed to enter Wah Yan 30 minutes before Mass.
6. The sign of peace should be expressed by bowing heads instead of shaking hands; Holy Communion should be received only “in the hand.
7. Once a Mass is concluded, parishioners should leave the chapel compound and avoid socializing.
8. If there is any confusion in the process of the above, we expect parishioners to understand and cooperate. Parishioners are encouraged to join the live streaming of Masses offered by the Hong Kong Catholic Cathedral.

Thank you.

God Bless!
